User Booking Guidelines

Setting Up: Setting up time must be booked and paid for, including the night before if that is required.

Responsibility of Keyholders

Please follow these simple housekeeping guidelines:

- Follow Fire Safety Responsibility--Page 2 below!
- Smoking is Prohibited: Sand bucket for extinguishing!
- Heating: Balanced system needs no alteration of thermostats. See notice for heat boost.
- Alcohol: A licence is required for sale and consumption of alcohol-and the prior approval of the Committee is also necessary. At private functions alcohol may be provided by the hirer eg. for special functions or dinners.
- Safety: Any drapes used must have been fireproofed and a relevant certificate obtained.
- Posters: Should not be attached to the walls at all. Please use bluetack if posters are placed on doors, remove after use. Do not use sellotape or drawing pins.
- Tidy: Crockery and cutlery wash and return to the cupboards. Sweep floors---do not wet wooden floor.
- Green Bin: Rubbish
- Blue Bin: Glass, cans
- Blue Bag: Paper, card.

Past experience has led us to provide these guidelines. The vast majority of users leave our building ready for further use, sadly a few have not. We have no caretaker – our building is cleaned by volunteers from the Committee.

BURTON IN LONSDALE VILLAGE HALL FIRE SAFETY RESPONSIBILITIES FOR USERS OF THE PREMESIS

As the responsible person for the event/function, etc. you have legal duties with regards to the safety of those persons assisting or attending the event.

Before the event or function you should be aware of:

- what fire protection systems are present;
- how a fire will be detected;
- how people will be warned if there is a fire;
- what staff should do if they discover a fire;
- how the evacuation of the premises should be carried out;
- where people should assemble after they have left the premises and procedures for checking whether the premises have been evacuated;
- identification of key escape routes and exits, how people can gain access to them and escape to a place of safety;
- arrangements for fighting fire;
- specific arrangements, if necessary, for high fire-risk areas;
- how the fire and rescue service and any other necessary services will be called;
- procedures for meeting the fire and rescue service on their arrival and notifying them of any special risks, e.g. the location of highly flammable materials;
- what instruction employees or helpers need and the arrangements for ensuring that this training is given;
- limitation on numbers of people;
- any chains and padlocks which need removing from fire exits, etc.;
- exit doors which are required to be in the open position are secure; and
- checking that all escape routes are clear of obstructions and combustibles.

Before the event or function you should decide:

- the arrangements for fighting fire;
- the arrangements for means of escape for disabled persons;
- the duties and identity of staff who have specific responsibilities if there is a fire;
- the arrangements for the safe evacuation of people identified as being especially at risk, such as contractors, those with disabilities, children, members of the public and visitors;

- how you will proceed if life safety systems are out of order, e.g. fire-detection and alarm systems, sprinklers or smoke control systems;
- who will be responsible for calling the fire and rescue service and any other necessary services;
- who will meet the fire and rescue service on their arrival and notifying them of any special risks, e.g. the location of highly flammable materials; and
- your plans to deal with people once they have left the premises, especially children.

At the start of the event or function you should notify all those present about:

- the smoking policy;
- the emergency warning signal;
- who is supervising and how to identify them;
- location of exits and escape routes;
- taking only valuables immediately to hand but not to go to collect other belongings;
- the location of muster points; and
- what will happen after that (e.g. re-entry to the building).

During the event or function you should ensure that:

- escape routes and exits do not become blocked;
- your smoking policy is adhered to;
- no naked flames are started (unless authorised e.g. candles);
- where naked flames are present that combustible material is kept clear;
- rooms do not become overcrowded;
- noise levels cannot drown out the fire alarm; and
- if necessary, the number of persons in your premises is limited or controlled.
